

gy almost into kanning wood afternoon.

Loge Sigley arrived in town yeste day evening from Belleville, N. J. where he has been visiting relatives fo the past two months.

H. C. Kelly, Jr., wife and childre left Monday morning for their ho me.

Jesse Robb came up from Durley Sat urday morning, to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Lucinda B. Sin gleton, which occurred Sunday fore noon.

J. L. Sigley came down from White Oak Friday evening to attend the fun eral of Grandma Singleton, and visited with relatives and friends here and at New Douglas for several days.

It troubles

I buy my shoes from Whitworth and Co. They keep the best goods. 46-tf.

David Barker, Jr., of near Old Ripley, was a Sorento business visitor, Tuesday last.

Messrs. J. L. Sirley and W. S. Prickett were in Donnelson Tuesday, on Legal Business.

The "New Home" Sewing Mach'ne at Jestes', on long, easy payments. 44-tf

Mr. and Mrs. J. Emerick of Greenville, were calling on Sorento friends, Sunday.