

MORRIS CHAPEL.

Rain, rain; plenty of it.

Politics is the business now.

Some have sowed a few oats.

Some damage done by the water to fences.

The Laundry of Kirkland and Sigley is a failure.

Miss Abbie Lindley is staying with her sister at Soren's.

Wm. and John Pile hauled lumber to Mt. Olive, Friday.

Geo. Ray and Wm. Huffman both have new sets of harness.

R. B. Kirkland and family visited at T. W. Evans', Saturday.

Mr. Chas. Valentine was in these parts Sunday and Monday.

C. W. Garrison was in this community Thursday, buying corn.

Don't forget the Quarterly meeting next Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Zettie Lindley visited with Stringtown friends the last of the week.

Some of our boys were caught in the rain Sunday night. Boys, don't talk so long next time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huffman spent Friday with Donnellson friends.

Rev. Hampton spent Sunday with Bro. Kirkland. "Owing to the rain there was no preaching at this place.

John Pile says ringing horns is bad business, and we judge from the wound on top of his head that he is about right.

C. F. Kirkland informs us that his horse does not run off bridges; but says it can run over every stump on Shoal Creek.

John, Ed. and Steve Pile accompanied by their three sisters attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Dela Lindley, at Pochontas, Sunday evening.

Logan Sigley departed last week for the north. As a candidate for matrimony may be expected without opposition is the wish of the "Arkansaw Traveler."
