

In reply to our item of two weeks ago, in regard to Logan Sigley being married he says, through the columns of the Pawnee Observer: "We owe our thanks for the above congratulations, but think in our case that condolence would be more appreciated." What he means by that we cannot say as he neither denies nor affirms the rumor. It may possibly be that Logan has, at this early day, come to the conclusion that "Marriage is a failure."

1893.