

Quite a number of our young men attended church at Sorento Sunday Eve.

Miss Annie Evans entertained Mrs. Robb and daughter and Miss Fannie Rehbary, Tuesday.

People and news are mud bound; some of them can't even get out to church—we mean the people of course.

Whig is in need of a coat.

People are suffering with bad colds.

Mrs. Wm. File is visiting with her son near Staunton.

Henry Seathoff was a New Douglas visitor Saturday last.

Ed. File of Sorento was here Sunday, smiling on his many friends.

Wonder what has become of our Bro. Pencil Pusher of Corrington. Brace up old Boy.

The hitch racks at our church is not in very good condition. We think new ones would be very much appreciated.

Rev. Nolan of Woodstock, this state, accompanied by Smith McRescken of Sorento, were here Monday, calling on friends.

J. L. Sigley has been out soliciting for THE BLADE the past few days. Although that are not subscribers may expect to see him.

Some of our boys are expecting to take in the Box Sociable at Walshville, Saturday evening, providing the weather is favorable.

Uncle Steve Kirkland will sell a lot of his personal property to-morrow. All those desiring anything in his line will do well to attend the sale.

Chas. Kirkland, while on his way home from Hillsboro, Saturday, met with an accident. His horse became frightened and threw him headlong in the mud. Fortunately for him, he escaped with only a bruise.
