

WALSHVILLE.

J. Harned came down from Litchfield, Wednesday.

P. W. Davenport made a business visit to Litchfield, Monday.

A. B. Copeland has an interest in the store with C. I. Ingleman.

Andy DeShane came down from Atlanta, Tuesday, on a visit to relatives.

C. A. Freeland, candidate for Circuit Clerk, of Hillsboro, was in town Wednesday.

E. J. Weathers went to Chestnut, Monday, where he expects to work for the summer.

Died at his home in Walshville, Sunday, Feb'y 28th, 1892, Uncle Tom Greenwood, aged 74.

Mr. C. Barlow moved from Greenville, Saturday, onto the Gordon property just east of town.

Logan Sigley and C. Kirkland were seen on our streets Saturday night. Come again, boys.

Mrs. Eva Potijohn of Barnett, came down Saturday night, to see her mother, who is dangerously ill with paralysis.

Misses Noi Denny and Anna Murphy went to Sorrento, Saturday evening, to visit friends and relatives; returning home Tuesday.

Miss A. M. Dorlans left, Wednesday, for her home in Alton, where she was called to the bedside of her mother, who is dangerously ill.

Saturday morning, while at the breakfast table, Mrs. John Butler had a stroke of paralysis. She is in a dangerous condition at this writing.

Sorrento, Wednesday.

Thos. Brown had a severe tussle with the prevailing influenza last week, but came out ahead.

The cold weather the past two weeks has made English sparrow hunting anything but a picnic.

Logan Sigley departed Wednesday morning, for White Oak, where he has many friends to visit.

Henry Kelly says "it aches," in speaking of La grippe. He ought to know, as he entertained that visitor several days last week.

Look for Cheap John on first week.

Jesse Robb came up from Durland Saturday morning, to attend the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Lucinda B. Singleton, which occurred Sunday forenoon.

J. L. Sigley came down from White Oak Friday evening to attend the funeral of Grandma Singleton, and visited with relatives and friends here and at New Douglas for several days.

It troubles...

SORRINGTON.

I buy my shoes from Whithworth and Co. They keep the best goods. 46-47.

David Barker, Jr., of near Old Ripley, was a Sorrento business visitor, Tuesday last.

Messrs. J. L. Sigley and W. S. Prickett were in Donnelson Tuesday, on Legal Business.

The "New Home" Sewing Machine at Jesters', on long, easy payments. 44-45

Mr. and Mrs. J. Emerick of Greenville, were calling on Sorrento friends, Sunday