

Locusts Jacksonville, 14

MORRIS CHAPEL.

Wheat is all cut,

Anna Evans is on the sick list.

Hay and oat harvest is almost at hand.

Cherry and Raspberry picking is the order of the day.

Logan Sigley, of Morrisonville, is visiting his father and sister this week.

Thomas Sigley has been very poorly for some time, but thinks he is improving.

Leslie and Mabel Robb took a load of cherries and raspberries to Litchfield, Tuesday, and report good sales and prices.

Good apples are scarce.

Plenty of ripe peaches now.

Tom Sigley is better this week.

Threshing is the order of the day.

Mr. J. M. Robb is not feeling better.

Miss Anna Evans is on the sick list and Miss Abbie Lindley is staying with her this week.

Mr. Robert Rosbary and Miss Dora Lindley are attending the camp meeting near Greenville this week.

Mr. James Valentine and wife and Rev. O. M. Edwards and wife of Hickory Grove, were here calling on the sick Saturday.

Wm. File and family went to the camp meeting near Greenville, Saturday morning and returned Sunday night reporting a good meeting.

Miss Hannah Livesey of New Douglas, is spending a few days with Mrs. Robb, kindly keeping her company after her daughter's death.

Misses Lissa, Dora and Zetta Lindley with Miss Rosa File and Miss Anna Evans met at Mrs. Robb's, Tuesday, to clear up and set things in order, and to cheer her in her loneliness. Many thanks for the same.

This community was greatly shocked last Sunday morning when the news was sent out that Ena Robb was dying. We all knew she had been sick for a few days, but had no thought that she was so bad. But after one week's sickness the Lord took her to Himself. She was a good christian young lady and loved by all who knew her. Her widowed mother has the sympathy of many friends.

MORRIS CHAPEL.

Another rain is needed here.

Blackberries are about gone.

Tom Sigley is no better.

Rev. H. H. Young preached a very good sermon, at the Chapel, Sunday morning.

Gertie Robb is spending a few days with friends at New Douglas.

Miss Ida Kirkland and Abbie Lindley, visited at C. W. Garrison's, Sunday.

Quite a number of the young folks from Corrington Chapel, attended services here Sunday morning. Hope they will come again, as we are always glad to see them.

MORRIS CHAPEL.

Thomas Sigley is very low.

Such delightful winter weather.

Johnnie Evans is on the sick list.

Nothing unusual here Christmas.

Mrs. Robb is suffering with la grippe.

Robert Rosbary and wife took dinner with his parents, Tuesday.

Miss Myrtie Bunn of Corrington, entertained Gertie Robb, Tuesday.

Uncle Steve Kirkland and wife visited with his son, Robert, Wednesday.

Miss Fannie Rosbary is spending the week with her parents, near Corrington.

Miss Zettie Lindley visited her sister, Mrs. Rosbary last Saturday and Sunday.

T. W. Evans and family spent a day at Mr. Thomas Alsop's, his son-in-law, this week.

Mrs. Rosbary and son, George, of Corrington, took dinner with her son Robert Saturday.

T. W. Isaacs and family from near New Douglas, visited at Mrs. M. L. Evans, Wednesday.

O. M. Edwards and wife of Hickory Grove, were entertained at Mrs. Robb's, Wednesday.

Miss Gertie Robb is enjoying a visit to-day with the Misses Beulah and Iona Edwards and expects to go from there to her aunt, Mrs. Isaacs, to-night, to spend a day or two.

New Year's Gift.

February 1901.

What did you spend Christmas?

J. L. Sigley butchered hogs Tuesday.

J. F. Robb has been unwell for the

Locusts
Blair