

two weeks is said to be improving some.

A postal card from J. L. Sigley informs us that he has gone to Carrington, N. D. where he expects to make his future home.

J. L. Bunch was in town again yesterday putting up a rail or weakness.

J. L. Sigley came down from White Oak last Wednesday, and was the guest of relatives here and at New Douglas until Monday. Loge does not seem to change at all as the years roll by, and being naturally a little backward he is still in the realm of bachelordom.

Sorento Blade

1) Please Return

tum's office and will guarantee to do you first-class work or money refunded. 13

Loge Sigley changed his address on us again before we could get out the paper. He got another job up there before he got started for Illinois and now his address is Carrington, N. D.

Sorento Council No. 7. M. P. L., will meet at Whitworth's Hall tomorrow night when several members will ly, who is with the 40th regime, stationed at Daputan, Mindano P. I. will be found on the last page of this issue.

A postal card from J. L. Sigley tells us that he has changed his address from Millsville, N. D., to White Oak. He says that hot winds and dry weather have caused a complete failure of the crops up in North Dakota and there's nothing to stay up there for now in the shape of work.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a

February 1898

Moving has been the order of the day for the past week. Sorry to lose some of our neighbors, but it is evident that others are coming.

Dr. Jones was called to Taylorville recently as a witness in a law-suit.

J. L. Sigley came down from White Oak last Wednesday and was the guest of relatives here, and at New Douglas until Monday. Loge does not seem to change at all as the years roll by, and being naturally a little backward he is still in the realm of bachelordom.— Sorento Blade.

Illinois
OUR MARKET LETTER.

J. L. Sigley, who has been up in the Dakotas this summer, dropped in to see his Sorento friends Tuesday evening. He has returned to White Oak once more.